UG syllabi of English in 1st semester, should be made more student- oriented . The syllabus is burdening the student with theory and they are becoming reluctant to study . There should be inclusion of Poetry, prose and drama, rather than only theory in 1st semester .

No

N.A.

We need more reference books

Everything is fine.

The syllabus committee should remember that any syllabus must be applicable to present-day perspectives, not based on old traditional periods. Institutions should focus on distributing the syllabus properly within the faculties. This distribution should not be aimed at profit maximization or other purposes.
